MEET THE TIHP MEDICAL DIRECTOR: DR. LIAM FRY

Dr. Liam Fry, born and raised in Texas, attended the University of Texas at Austin for undergraduate school and received a BA in the Plan II Honors Program. She graduated from the UT Southwestern Medical School in 2002, followed by an Internal Medicine Residency at Mount Sinai Medical Center in New York City. After finishing residency, she completed a fellowship in Geriatric Medicine at the John A. Burns School of Medicine in Honolulu, HI. She is board certified in Internal Medicine, Geriatrics, and Hospice and Palliative Medicine. She joined her current practice - Austin Geriatric Specialists in 2006 and continues to work as an attending physician as well as a certified medical director at several nursing facilities in Central Texas. She has been active in organized medicine in geriatrics, having served as the President of TMDA 2021-2023, and is the current Chief of the Division of Geriatrics and Palliative Care at the University of Texas Dell Medical school. In addition, she serves on two governor appointed committees with HHSC: the Nursing Facility Administrator's Advisory Council (NFAAC) as well as the Long-Term Care Facilities Council (LTCFC). She joined Texas Independence Health Plan in 2020 as the medical director for the plan as well as the medical director helping oversee the training and quality of care provided by our nurse practitioners working under NPS Texas. She is a valuable resource with many years experience in practice as well as in the value-based care space. Please feel free to reach out to her at lfry@txihp.com if you ever have any questions or concerns.
